STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

(MODIFIED BY THE COURT)

Winston & Strawn LLP
333 S. Grand Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90071-1543

1                    PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2            1.        Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of 3 confidential, proprietary, and/or trade secret information for which special protection from public
4 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted.
5 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated
6 Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all
7 disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited
8 information or items that are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as 9 confidential. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 10, below, that this Stipulated
10 Protective Order creates no entitlement to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule
11 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and reflects the standards that will be applied 12 when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

13            2.        DEFINITIONS

14            2.1        Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 15 consultants, retained experts, and outside counsel (and their support staff).

16            2.2        Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium 17 or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, or 18 tangible things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this 19 matter.

20            2.3        "Confidential" Information or Items: information (regardless of how generated, stored 21 or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under standards developed under 22 F.R.Civ.P. 26(c), including, but not be limited to, trade secrets, confidential knowledge, data or 23 proprietary information relating to products, processes, know-how, designs, formulas, developmental 24 work, computer programs, data bases, other original works of authorship, customer lists, business
25 plans, financial information or other subject matter pertaining to any business of Flextronics, its 26 customers or others with which it does business.

27            2.4        Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 28 Producing Party.

Winston & Strawn LLP
333 S. Grand Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90071-1543

2.5 Producing Party: a Party or non-party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this action.

2.6 Designating Party: a Party or non-party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "Confidential."

2.7 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as "Confidential."

2.8 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who are retained to represent or advise a Party in this action.

2.9 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party.

2.10 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and House Counsel (as well as their support staffs).

2.11 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action and who is not a past or a current employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party's and who, at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or a competitor of a Party's. This definition includes a professional jury or trial consultant retained in connection with this litigation.

2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and subcontractors.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or counsel to or in court or in other settings that might reveal Protected Material.

4. DURATION

Even after the termination of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order

1 otherwise directs. For a period of six months after the final termination of this action, this court will retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this order.

2 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL.

3 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or 4 non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit
5 any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. A
6 Designating Party must take care to designate for protection only those parts of material, documents,
7 items, or oral or written communications that qualify - so that other portions of the material,
8 documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 9 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

10 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown 11 to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily
12 encumber or retard the case development process, or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens
13 on other parties), expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

14 If it comes to a Party's or a non-party's attention that information or items that it designated 15 for protection do not qualify for protection at all, or do not qualify for the level of protection initially 16 asserted, that Party or non-party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the 17 mistaken designation.

18 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order
19 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a), below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, material
20 that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is 21 disclosed or produced.

22 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

23 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts of depositions or other 24 pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" at the top
25 of each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page
26 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., 27 by making appropriate markings in the margins).

28 A Party or non-party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection

Winston & Strawn LLP
333 S. Grand Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90071-1543

1 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it
2 would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the 3 material made available for inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting
4 Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must
5 determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order, then, before
6 producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend
7 ("CONFIDENTIAL") at the top of each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or 8 portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 9 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

10 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 11 Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the testimony identify on the record, before the close of the 12 deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony, and further specify any portions of 13 the testimony that qualify as "CONFIDENTIAL." When it is impractical to identify separately each 14 portion of testimony that is entitled to protection, and when it appears that substantial portions of the 15 testimony may qualify for protection, the Party or non-party that sponsors, offers, or gives the 16 testimony may invoke on the record (before the deposition or proceeding is concluded) a right to 17 have up to 20 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony. Only those portions of the 18 testimony that are appropriately designated for protection within the 20 days shall be covered by the 19 provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

20 Transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound by the court
21 reporter, who must affix to the top of each such page the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" as instructed 22 by the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the witness or presenting the testimony.

23 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary, and for any other
24 tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or 25 containers in which the information or item is stored the legend "CONFIDENTIAL." If only 26 portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, 27 shall identify the protected portions.

28 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to

Winston & Strawn LLP
 333 S. Grand Avenue
 Los Angeles, CA 90071-1543

1 designate qualified information or items as "Confidential" does not, standing alone, waive the 2 Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material. If material is 3 appropriately designated as "Confidential" after the material was initially produced, the Receiving 4 Party, on timely notification of the designation, must make reasonable efforts to assure that the 5 material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

7 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's 8 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial unfairness, unnecessary
 9 economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive
 10 its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly 11 after the original designation is disclosed.

12 6.2 Meet and Confer. A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating Party's 13 confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the process by conferring
 14 directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) with counsel
 15 for the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief 16 that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an 17 opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in 18 designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A challenging Party may 19 proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer 20 process first.

21 6.3 Judicial Intervention. A Party that elects to press a challenge to a confidentiality
 22 designation after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party may file and serve a 23 motion under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) that 24 identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis for the challenge. Each such 25 motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms that the movant has complied 26 with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph and that sets forth with 27 specificity the justification for the confidentiality designation that was given by the Designating
 28 Party in the meet and confer dialogue.

1 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating
2 Party. Until the court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford the material in 3 question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation.

4
5 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL.

6 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 7 produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,
8 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to 9 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has 10 been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 11, below (FINAL 11 DISPOSITION).

12 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a 13 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

14 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 15 by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 16 information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL only to:

17 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of record in this action, as well as employees
18 of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

19 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving 20 Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 21 "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

22 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party (1) to whom disclosure is 23 reasonably necessary for this litigation, (2) who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by 24 Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

25 (d) the Court and its personnel;

26 (e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is 27 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by 28 Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A). Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

(g) the author of the document or the original source of the information.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION.

If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that would compel disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" the Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing (by fax, if possible) immediately and in no event more than three court days after receiving the subpoena or order. Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order.

The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the Party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all the material covered by the subpoena or order is the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must deliver a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order promptly to the Party in the other action that caused the subpoena or order to issue.

The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued. The Designating Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

9. SITE INSPECTIONS

The Parties agree that no photographs, drawings, sketches, diagrams or any other graphic reproduction of products or processes will be allowed at any visitation or inspection of any of Defendants Flextronic's locations under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 34(a)(1).

Winston & Strawn LLP
333 S. Grand Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90071-1543

10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL.

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL.

Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5.

12. FINAL DISPOSITION.

Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in writing by the Producing Party, within sixty days after the final termination of this action, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other form of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. With permission in writing from the Designating Party, the Receiving Party may destroy some or all of the Protected Material instead of returning it. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the sixty day deadline that identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and that affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or other forms of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence or attorney work product, even if such

1 materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected
 2 Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION), above.

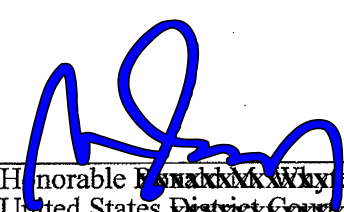

3 13. MISCELLANEOUS

4 13.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek 5 its modification by the Court in the future.

6 13.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order
 7 no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 8 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no
 9 Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by 10 this Protective Order.

11 PURSUANT TO STIPULATION (AS MODIFIED BY THE COURT), 12 IT IS SO ORDERED.

1           ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

2           I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full
3 address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the 4 Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Northern 5 District of California on [date] in the case of Gil v. Flextronics, et al. I agree to comply with and to 6 be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that
7 failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I
8 solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this 9 Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of 10 this Order.

11           I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the 12 Northern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective 13 Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.
